Insights To Save Time and Make You Money

Executive Summary / '60 Second Speed Read':

In this month's newsletter, you'll find information about important topics like . . .

Are Your Hazard Lights Making You Break The Law?

File this under "Strange But True!"

According to many policy departments, if you use your hazard lights inappropriately, it could get you in "hot water" . . . pretty fast, too!

There's a secret to avoiding problems, though.

Preparation Resources for 2020 Hurricanes

So far this year we've experienced some serious tropical storms. "Fay", the earliest named storm beginning with an 'F', slammed into NJ recently and did over $400 Million Dollars in Damages.

The hurricane season is still young and the potential for more Tropical Storms and Hurricanes remains fairly high.

In this post, we provide links to a number of guides offered by the National Weather Service.

Reading (and, heeding!) their advice can help keep you, your family and your business safe during the remainder of an 'above average' hurricane season.

Insurance Commercials May Be Entertaining But Getting Your Claim Paid Isn't Always a Laughing Matter!

You've watched an insurance company commercial or two (or, 10,000!), right?

Every day you might see a little lizard or friendly store-clerk who wants you to buy your insurance coverage from their company. And, you've smiled. Chucked. Maybe you even had a good laugh when you watched them.

Well, a recent study of many well-known insurance companies revealed a significant difference in their likelihood to pay for certain kinds of common vehicle repairs.

Funny thing is, whether your claims will be paid or not depends on one factor more than any other.

Read this post to learn what that might be!
